

Craig David, What More Could I Ask For? (feat. V

Yo, you're stylish, vibrant, different, beautiful
What more, what more could I ask for?
You're shining, gifted, fearless, handling your business
What more, what more could I ask for?

So many different reasons
We know how to live in the now
They can't figure it out, oh yeah
As long as I'm still breathing
You can count on me when it counts
You and I made a vow, tell me

How do I add too
I can be the frame to help complete the picture
Do I help you
When we're miles apart and text to say I miss you?
'Cause I, I wanna tell you
That I, I really love you
And I appreciate every day
That I'm part of your life, your life

You're stylish, vibrant, different, beautiful
What more, what more could I ask for?
You're shining, gifted, fearless, handling your business
What more, what more could I ask for?

Turn up on the weekend
You worked hard, now time to show out
You ain't playing it down, oh no
It's more than just a feeling
I'm so glad I have you around
You just brighten my life

How do I add too
I can be the frame to help complete the picture
Do I help you
When we're miles apart and text to say I miss you?
'Cause I, I wanna tell you
That I, I really love you
And I appreciate every day
That I'm part of your life, your life

You're stylish, vibrant, different, beautiful
What more, what more could I ask for?
You're shining, gifted, fearless, handling your business
What more, what more could I ask for?

Yo, the list is on going, wrote a little poem
But I didn't want to show it, guess the hero's not heroic
Shows you that I'm growing, handed in my notice
Kinda hard to play the field with all the dandelion blowing
Blinded by your vision and your focus, Moet for the moments
Ban the camera phones and all the phoning
Eye to eye zoning, soul to soul glowing
Devoted, we're molded, so (how do I)
Turn the two of us into a three
And tie the knot the missing branches of our tree?
(Do I) give you everything you'll ever need?
The best of me is yet to come, do you agree? 'Cause I
I wanna cut through and vibe, and I love you
And I appreciate every day that I'm part of your life, your life

You're stylish, vibrant, different, beautiful
What more, what more could I ask for?

You're shining, gifted, fearless, handling your business
What more, what more could I ask for?

You're stylish, vibrant, different, beautiful
What more, what more could I ask for?
You're shining, gifted, fearless, handling your business
What more, what more could I ask for?

There ain't any more I could ask for man
What could I ask
What could I ask
Ah yeah
What more
What more
What more
Yeah, alright
What more
What more
What more
