Craig Morgan, Almost Home

He had plastic bags wrapped round his shoes. He was covered with the evening news. Had a pair of old wool socks on his hands.

The bank sign was flashing five below, It was freezing rain an' spittin' snow. He was curled up behind some garbage cans. I was afraid that he was dead. I gave him a gentle shake. When he opened up his eyes I said, "Old man are you ok?"

He said, "I just climbed out of a cottonwood tree, I was runin' from some honey bees.
Drip dryin' in the summer breeze,
After jumpin' into Calico creek.
I was walkin' down an old dirt road,
Past a field of hay that had just been mowed.
Man I wish you'd just left me alone,
'Cause I was almost home."

Then he said, "I's just comin' 'round the barn Bout the time you grabbed my arm, When I heard Momma holler 'son hurry up.' I was close enough for my own nose To smell fresh cobbler on the stove And I saw daddy loadin' up the truck Cane poles on the tailgate Bobbers blowin' in the wind Since July of '55 That's as close as I've been."

"Yeah, I just climbed out of a cottonwood tree. I was runin' from some honey bees. Drip dryin' in the summer breeze, After jumpin' into Calico creek. I was walkin' down an old dirt road, Past a field of hay that had just been mowed. Man I wish you'd just left me alone, I was almost home."

I said, "Old man you're gonna freeze to death. Let me drive you to the mission." He said, "Boy if you'd left me alone Right now I'd be fishin'"
