

Cranes, Jewel

If I could keep
this moment here
live away
get away

and now I feel you
crossing my heart
shining shining
like a jewel

ooh
put me high on a wall
and let's not fall
let's not fall

sweet dreams I remember it all I remembered it all

doo te doo...

if I could keep this hour and hold you gently next to me it would sparkle like a jewel and all this means so much to me

you know it's gone
it's gone too fast
wish you could never be in the past but then i'll (have) more to lose alone and screaming
eo eo eo...
