Cranes, Jewel

If I could keep this moment here live away get away and now I feel you crossing my heart shining shining like a jewel ooh put me high on a wall and let's not fall let's not fall sweet dreams I remember it all I remembered it all doo te doo...

if I could keep this hour and hold you gently next to me it would sparkle like a jewel and all this means so much to me you know it's gone it's gone too fast wish you could never be in the past but then i'll (have) more to lose alone and screaming eo eo eo...
