

Crashd?et, Back On Trakk

If ya caught up where you are gotta find your guiding star to point you back where you belong standin' tall n' ya got the style a turbulent mass, yer a walkin' rite you've rang the bell n' won the prize let's macke the this loud here we are back on track again this is the moment I love to feel back on track my friend now it's up to you N' me on the rack and when we leave that place to be
back on track again
feel the gain building up the spine exceeding input overdrive you gotta love am I rite you lead the blind you lead the stream the current ways are much to lean you are the captian of the team there is a story to be told, you know why don't ya share it with the world
