

Crazy Town, You're The One

So many people in the scene LOOK AT life like a joke
But then I met you just when I was losin' hope
You appeared in a cloud of smoke
You don't look like Aaliyah but your rockin' my boat
So you can take me to a punk rock paradise
Thats about the time I get lost in your eyes
CAUSE I want you, I want what you got
Just the thought of it is makin' me hot
So baby don't stop
I could have you on the bottom and you'd still be on top
Just dirty little kids in a crib full of sex toys
Got the walls padded from the back to the front
So me and baby girl can get as loud as we want
Said I love you so much you dirty little cunt
I LIKE it when you smack me and call me a PUNK
And for the first time in my life, I said I feel so alive
My whole life has changed before my very eyes

Love is in the air, you're like the answer to my prayers
All I wanted was a girl that could really take me there
and that ya do, that ya do, that ya do..
I must of met a million girls but I want you.
Love is in the air, you're like the answer to my prayers
All I wanted was a girl that could really take me there
and that ya do, that ya do, that ya do..
I must of met a million girls but I want you.

And words can't explain the way I feel inside
You're like my own amusement park and only I can take a ride
And sex is bliss sometimes we come home at night
Make love, kiss, hug, drink, drug and fight
And even when I'm wrong my girl will fuck me till I'm right.
Kiss me all over, lick me head from toe
Fuck, maybe when we older 'cause I already know
I musta met a million girls but somthin's different bout you
Can't put my finger on one thing, its everything that you do
I used to see you in the club with your friends
And you'd pretend that you weren't lookin' at me
but I was lookin' at you
I know you look at me and see me as a crook with a brew
Just an everyday player, good looks, TATTOOS
Let me explain, theres somethin' different bout you
You judge a book by its cover and you're sure to lose
A musta met a million girls but I want you

Love is in the air, you're like the answer to my prayers
All I wanted was a girl that could really take me there
And that ya do, that ya do, that ya do..
I must of met a million girls but I want you.
Love is in the air, you're like the answer to my prayers
All I wanted was a girl that could really take me there
And that ya do, that ya do, that ya do..
I must of met a million girls but I want you.

Was it a quiz when I met her, some sort of a test
In a cruel dress she's eyein me as if I was blessed
Like an aura trapped me, put me under arrest
Then she slapped me, sentenced to life with no contest.
A thug, Bitch, body like heaven I'm talking classy
Twenty men, breakin' their necks she's walkin' past me
WENT TO PASS AT, started to speak, voice was raspy
Heard she was an angel, but sex she liked it nasty
Hit her off late one night, she's lookin' tight
Shorty sippin her drink to get the vibe just right

Ginuwine is in the stereo finessin' the deck
I put my tongue in her mouth, began caressing her neck
My body shiverin' scared to death I wouldn't impress
Her body quiverin' as a put my palm on her chest
This girls a treasure, appreciating all that she get
I'm gettin' pleasure lickin' up the small of her back
Take every measure, I can take all proper precatations
Every single preportion more fragile then porcelain
She's forcin' a sexual drug, and I'm addicted
Suddenly I'm feeling bubbly, you got me twisted

Love is in the air, you're like the answer to my prayers
All I wanted was a girl that could really take me there
And that ya do, that ya do, that ya do..
I must of met a million girls but I want you.
Love is in the air, you're like the answer to my prayers
All I wanted was a girl that could really take me there
And that ya do, that ya do, that ya do..
I must of met a million girls but I want you.

You're the one, you're the one fly girl
You're the one, you're the one for me..
I said, you're the one, you're the one fly girl
You're the one, you're the one for me...thats right.

You're the one, you're the one fly girl
Thats right, you're the one for me.
You're the one, you're the one fly girl
Thats right, you're the one for me...thats right
