Cream, White Room

In the white room with black curtains
Near the station
Black-roof country, no gold pavements,
Tired starlings
Silver horses, ran-down moonbeams
In your dark eyes
Dawn-light smiles on you
Leaving my contentment.

I'll wait in this place Where the sun never shines Wait in this place Where the shadows run from themselves.

You said no strings could secure you At the station Platform ticket, restless diesels, Goodbye windows I walked into such a sad time At the station As I walked out, felt my own need Just beginning.

I'll wait in the queue When the trains come back Lie with you Where the shadows run from themselves.

At the party, she was kindness In the hard crowd Consolation for the old wound Now forgotten Yellow tigers crouched in jungles In her dark eyes She's just dressing, goodbye windows, Tired starlings.

I'll sleep in this place
With the lonely crowd
Lie in the dark
Where the shadows run from themselves.
