

Cremation, Vanished Into Oblivion

Absorbed by darkness, by a shroud of emptiness
Obscurity haunts me, imprisons me
Captured in infinity, mirthless solitude
Dissolving in the void, into oblivion

Resigned to dejection
Vanished into oblivion

Surrounded by the caprice of a woeful desolation
Drifting in the monotone silence of serenity

[lead: Joost]

Ominous black clouds are gathering on the horizon
A faint twinkling of lights very the gloom
Floating across the twilight, into oblivion
Drifting from the veil of reality

Resigned to dejection
Vanished into oblivion

Absorbed by darkness, by a shroud of emptiness
Obscurity haunts me, imprisons me
Captured in infinity, mirthless solitude
