

Crematory, Reign Of Fear

Ladies and gentleman here is a story about time about fear

A long time ago the world was not ready he only arrived at night the horror was inside it full of creed full obsessed he prayed upon the sleeping out of sight out of mind the nightmare awakens

This the reign of fear caught somewhere in a lost world this is the reign of fear raped somehow in a dying world
this is the reign of fear prayed for nothing but my paradise pain but now you have resigned

Many years ago the time was not steady an introduction of might the fear was infected full of hate full of pain a mass without remorse out of time out of life the nightmare continues
