

Crest, Never Sleep Again

if you leave as I close my eyes I will never sleep again taste my heart sulphur butterfly or forever fly alone

I am your thunderdome
I provide the leper's bliss I am the reptiles tongue that speaks in riddles come taste the gargoyle's kiss

if you leave as I close my eyes
I will never sleep again
taste my heart sulphur butterfly
or forever fly alone
