

Crest Of Darkness, Living Dead

emptiness
your soul will forever cry
slowly you will fade away your God is dead

your world is gone

your conscience/a prison you've got no free will you're a living dead/a marionette

I am your deepest fear
I am the truth

I know who you are
I know your real name

wake me up from my sleep

a ghost from the past a voice from the grave you know I will find you it's written in your eyes

emptiness....
sometimes you love me
wake me up from my dreams sometimes you hate me

you have got the key
and you will learn to see

emptiness....

I will lead you to the gate you will learn to see through the eyes of the Beast
