Criminal, Under My Skin

Stigmatized, unlike anyone of you I'm a stranger, anyplace I go

Scarred for life, down to the core Never regret, never repent Hate makes me stronger In my personal war Poisoning my blood Raging within This fire is burning Under my skin

If I bleed, my blood is for my own No futile creed, shall pollute my soul

Flesh of the weak Feeds that machine Never accept, never submit Hate makes me stronger...

Show no remorse, But If I ever do I'll hate myself, more than I hate you

Scarred for life, an open sore Never regret, never repent Hate makes me stronger...
