

Crimson Glory, Lady Of Winter

Her wraith rides the crystal sky of changing colors
The glowing clouds are moving through the winter night
Snow is falling silver shining Through the shadows deep blue dreaming eyes of diamond shine
Lady of winter, turning to rain
White world of wonder, fading away Bright beams of violent light break the silence Melting colors crushed beneath the waves of rolling flames Seasons turning, burning burning
Lady of winter, song in the wind
Melody whispers, seasons will change
Lady of winter, turning to rain
White world of wonder, fading away
Melody whispers, seasons will change
