

Crimson Glory, Red Sharks

Trapped in their world no free passage to leave

You accept their tyrannical dream

You pray to their gods not to your chosen ones

Freedom's clutched in the jaw of red kings

Give us your freedom, we'll give you hell

Hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil

Give us your freedom, we'll give you hell

Hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil

Glory to red sharks

Answer to your red dictators

Feeding from your dreams

Cast into a sea of red sharks

Holding the power a hand that grips fate

Stripping from you all but fear

Hovering vultures like demons feed

On all who bow to their communist scheme

Give us your freedom, we'll give you hell

Hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil

Give us your freedom, we'll give you hell

Hear no freedom, see no freedom, speak no freedom

Glory to red sharks

Answer to your red dictators

Feeding from your dreams

Bloody red sharks
