

Crimson Glory, Strange And Beautiful

Dark eyes shine with strange desire
Velvet cold skin tastes like fire
Something in her eyes
Make you need to be inside her
Something in her twisted smile
Sends shivers down my spine
Round and round and down she goes
Where she stops nobody really knows
Love to her is pain to you
Tell you man she's strange and beautiful
Take it easy baby now you love is killing me
Your love is killing me
You can feel her deep inside
But you will never come to understand her
Round and round and down she goes
Where she stops nobody really knows
Love to her is pain to you
Tell you man she's strange and beautiful
Wicked and wonderful
Dark eyes shine with a strange desire
Velvet cold skin tastes like fire
Strange and beautiful
Strange and beautiful
Round and round and down she goes
Where she stops nobody really knows
Love to her is pain to you
Tell you man she's strange and beautiful
Cold eyes burn with a dark desire
Velvet strange skin tastes like fire
Ladies and gentlemen welcome one and all
Come see the lady of your dreams
The show's about to start
Round and round and down she goes
Where she stops nobody really knows
Love to her is just a game
Tell you man she's strange
Strange and beautiful
Strange and beautiful
