

Crimson Thorn, Humbled (Luke 18: 10-14)

Satan knows your weaknesses, HE knows just how to tempt you
You'll get hit at your weakest moment, Fall into sin again and again
Then depression sets in, you feel so bad that you've fallen again
You feel too ashamed to turn back to God, then you begin to turn away

Resistance against Satan is not futile, the bible says
Resist him and he'll flee from you

Humble yourself before God and He'll life you up, Draw near
To Him and He'll draw near to you. Don't turn away from Jesus, He wants to heal your heart and mind
And make mistakes, Who can save us from our bodies of death, JESUS!

Never rationalize your sin, Never tell yourself it's not that bad
Never justify your sin, finding reasons to say it's not your fault or that it's not wrong
Mourn and wail against your sin, Bring it to God and He'll forgive you, Our spirits seek righteousness

Submission to God is the only way to defeat evil, Our Lord and Savior Jesus is the way

There were some people who were confident of their own righteousness
They looked down on everyone else, Jesus told this parable
Two men went up to the temple to pray
One a Pharisee and the other a tax collector
The Pharisee stood up and prayed about himself "God I thank you that I am not like other men
Robbers, evildoers, adulterers, or even like this tax collector
I fast twice a week and give a tenth of all I get."
But the tax collector stood at a distance
He would not even look up to Heaven, but beat his chest and said "God have mercy on me, a sinner"
I tell you the tax collector rather than the Pharisee went home justified before God...
For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted
