

Crimson Thorn, No Suicide

Darkness you feel empty inside Drugs you think they can help you hide depressed you don't think you can stay alive drowning in thoughts of suicide

Chorus:
No Suicide
No Suicide
No Suicide
One of satan's lies

there is someone who loves you
He gave his life for you Let Jesus Inside
He will fill your empty void

Chorus
You are worth something life there is a reason that you live God he does not make trash live in Jesus have eternal paradise
