

Criss Angel, Fear

I live in the past
I can't move on beyond the pain
I feel no release
I want to find my peace of mind
My fear My fear
It's holding me stillborn
My fear My fear
I'll never be again

You stole the innocence
From a child to be no more
Blinded by the silence
Afraid to speak a word
My fear My fear
It's holding me stillborn
My fear My fear
I'll never be again

Thinking on the time of my demise
I wish it wasn't me the victimized
But I don't know
Really can't see
How I really couldn't kill
the mother fucker who violated me
My fear My fear
It's holding me stillborn
My fear My fear
I'll never be again
