

Crosby, Stills & Nash, If Anybody Had A Heart

If anybody had a heart
Yours would never be broken
If anybody had a heart like mine

In this world of right and wrong
The hardest part is beginning
And by the time you get where you belong
You're either losing or winning

Well, I don't know how but people seem to know
When you want somebody bad enough
Ah, well I want you now and wherever you go
I'm gonna love you till you've had enough

If anybody had a heart
Yours would never be broken
If anybody had a heart like mine

Some people treat you like the clothes you wear
They only see what you show them
Just let them talk baby I don't care
They don't know where we're going

But I love you so much and I have for so long
How could anybody doubt it?
Ah, just one little touch and my love is so strong
Baby, how can we live without it?

If anybody had a heart
Yours would never be broken
If anybody had a heart like mine

When you love somebody
You might stumble, you might fall
If you love somebody hard enough
You might just get it all

If anybody had a heart
Yours would never be broken
If anybody had a heart like mine

If anybody had a heart
Yours would never be broken
If anybody had a heart like mine

If anybody had a heart
Yours would never be broken
If anybody had a heart like mine
