

Crosse Clay, Stained Glass Window

Mark Heimermann and Phil Madeira

Just beneath the rafters

In a church of stone

Laid a stained glass window

In the attic all alone

A work of art forgotten,

A treasure thrown away

Taken from the sunlight,

It was just a useless frame

Chorus:

Ooh the things in life we take for granted

Ooh the things of wonder we could know

Ooh I want to be illuminated

Full of Heaven's light

Shining through my life

Let the window of my heart reveal Your love

I took the stained glass window

And held it to the light

Years of hidden glory

Reappeared before my eyes

Every brilliant color

Glowing like a fire

Full of revelation

And created to inspire

Repeat chorus

Chant:

Thirsting for the morning sun

I am Yours, Thy will be done

Let Your love in me unfold

With it's beauty to behold.

There's a stained glass window

In the soul of a man

A pattern of perfection

That was made with holy hands

And with the light of heaven

Pouring through each pane

Truth in all its splendor

Is revealed and will remain

(C)1997 Fun Attic Music, Mail Train Music (ASCAP)

Drums: Dan Needham

Guitars: George Cocchini, Jerry McPherson

Bass: Jackie Street

Keyboards: Mark Heimermann

Percussion: Terry MacMillan

Guitar solo: Jerry McPherson

BGVs: Clay Crosse