

Crown Of Thorns, Godless

Join me through a path of life when a dream becomes reality Your dark dreams / Your agony are far beyond your sanity
The cold wind / dries my blood
The blood that I gave for an eternal life Defeated by the memories that haunted my sadistic mind

Follow me into my darkest desires and follow me into my grave
Follow me to my holiest phantasm
that shows that I'm insane

I depict you / my idol for a place in your kingdom Your holy words I adore when you destroy what I create Darkness will fall on you at the day, the day you die Now you leave this mortal life to your stupid desired lie

Follow me into my darkest desires
Follow me to my holiest phantasm
that shows that I'm insane

They showed me all the lusts that I so desired if their god was the only god I admired

I am godless...

At the holy altar
my life fades away
Now I realize
I'm just one without god

Without god...
