

Crown Of Thorns, Misery Speaks

[Music: J. Lindstrand/M. Tervonen. Lyrics: J. Lindstrand]

Inside his mind
Into the demon world
From there he haunts their dreams
Look at his eyes - Look at his fear
Look at the tears that drip
And the bible that's burning now
The flames have searched and found
Look at your God - Pathetic and weak
Your father burns

I've seen a thousand "crimes"
But this is one of the "worst";
The demon's laughing now
The world is his - The world is pain
Oh so great
It will possess our bodies
Oh yeah - Satan's smiling now
The world is his - The world is lost

Behind the dark
He stands to watch the weak
And his fate destroys their hope
Look at the cross - Look at the fall
Feel the burning hate - From the conscious red Insanity! - cause of alarm?
Look at the end - Misery speaks hell is loose

I've seen a thousand "crimes";...

Seek and you will find - Messiah stabbed in the head
No one will ever miss him - They are all dead

[Lead: M. Tervonen - M. Sunesson]

And so you inject the black venom
Following the trail of future - Towards the bleeding face of Christ
And spit him goodbye

[Lead: M. Tervonen]

I've seen a thousand "crimes";
But this is one of the "worst";
You are laughing now
The dream is gone - You are reborn oh so dark
Burning your own church
Yeah - Satan's smiling now
Without me - I'm nobody's prey
I am my own God.
