

Crowned King, All That She Wanted

Now you've tried me on for size
I fit you perfectly so perfectly disguised
And I need to breathe you in
I'll suffocate without you
Underneath my skin
Cause all that she wanted all that she wanted is me
A broken window to my soul
In desperation your the only stone i throw
And I need to breathe you out
Cause your the only one i ever think about
And I need to breathe you in
And I need to breathe you out
And I need to breathe you in and out and in and out
All that she wanted
All that she needed
All that she wanted
I need to know was me
