

CROWNSHIFT, If You Dare

Another stab that I couldn't see coming
This is where the take off really begins
Never allowed yet never need to return
Inside the flames of bridge you've forced to burn

Hey you wanna drop me out?
Without a word, so leave me I don't care
Hey you better shut me out
If you care, kill me if you dare

As you once told me lies
Reflection of your mind
Words so divided, dropping out of lines
Story unfolds
Designed to the bitter end
Nothing more to say
Kill me if you care

You start to feed your perilous lust
Can't you feel the thrill?
Anything at all? No...
All wired for the charming sense
You don't know what you're living for God save you now...

Hey you wanna drop me out?
Without a word, so leave me I don't care
Hey you better shut me out
If you care, kill me if you dare
If you dare...

As you once told me lies
Reflection of your mind
Words so divided, dropping out of lines
Story unfolds
Designed to the bitter end
Nothing more to say
Kill me if you care
If you dare...

Hey you wanna drop me out
without a word, so leave me I don't care
Hey you better shut me out
If you care, kill me if you dare

As you once told me lies
Reflection of your mind
Words so divided, dropping out of lines
Story unfolds
Designed to the bitter end
Kill me if you care...

If you never told me lies
Reflection of your mind
Words so divided, dropping out of lines
Story unfolds
Designed to the bitter end
Kill me if you care

It's what I've been living for, to see the story unfold
It's what I fear, yet all I care
