

Crucified, Seal Number Four

here comes the ashen horse death is on its back the creature utters - "come" the creature's voice - a thunder crack

(chorus)
seal number four is broken now the time has come (x2) once in times of peace there was a chance before but now it's much too late he's broken seal number four

(chorus)
