

Crushead, Shake Me

lord you know my presence and you know my past you even know the things, i got lost you know my pleasures you know my fears and you know the words which are spoken here and now i'm calling up to you my lord i'm a a stupid sinner in a crazy world and you are the one to grab me out of my fears to set my heart free and put a smile in my face i take a look at myself and my injuries in my soul in my heart in my reality feels like i'm caught in a net of my own sins and lies lord please cut the strings and open my eyes cruising just cruising watch me lord and seek shake me just shake me shake me till i scream wake me up son of g.o.d.

make my day blow me up like t.n.t you're the one to take me to the promised land and to grab me out of this crazy place in your name we crush our heads you're the reason why we clap our hands make me burn make everything you want you're the only holy one cruising...
