

Cryptal Darkness, Winter For Evermore...

[Music: O. Alexander / M. Kelson]

[Lyrics: O. Alexander]

Deep within the evergreen woods
An old gravestone alone it stands times of the ancient past
Dismal winter gloom surrounds this forest
Chills sweep across October's path
May this year be darkness. . .

Everlasting snowfall from this day forth
In winter for evermore

Everlasting snowfall from this day forth
In winter for evermore. . .
