&lt;/lyrics&gt;

Hey baby, won't you come a little bit closer whenever you look with your cold eyes, in a blunt way I feel uneasy about your way of act yeah, I know sometimes you show a smile, it's so cute show me more of your true face your image it's not equal to the reality you, surely ah

* i get so nervous when I'm by your side Oh yeah, I'm so in love with you just being near you is not enough ah I get so restless when we are eye to eye my heartbeat pulses so fast the more I became your friend, the more it feels so amazing like in the middle of a dream, oh my love although some people don't like you it's just gossip, you're not like this yeah, whenever your style of walking around is so cool I like you more and more

I fear the damage, step to the brake regreting ah

my heart shakes so much and so sad, Oh yeah, baby I want you to be mine to be loved by you is so hard, almost a fruitless effort gradually I start to don't understand it the feeling that your heartbeat is transmitting if only you could notice my feelings and turn to me, oh my love why you're saying no is it useless? i don't understand it I don't have more theories, so out of control wishing for your heart Won't you come closer, baby Come closer to me, ah

* repeat
