

Crystal Kay, LOST CHILD

Round and round butterfly High and low Fly away

Stand under the sunshine

So, I try to catch in my cage

I've ever seen

Tell me why

One more time butterfly Come and go Fly away

Stood under the moonlight

Then I heard a haunting sad song
Melody
Did you kiss my cheek?

let me know

Round and Round
Butterfly Fly away
One more time
High & Low Fly away

Round & round, the butterfly that takes off is flying away High & low, like dancing, it'll fly off somewhere

Stand under the sunshine was it a dream I had on a familiar street corner of a butterfly that gently stops on the shoulder of my red aozai to rest?

So, I try to catch in my cage it slips through my fingers so suddenly than I've ever seen I have a feeling that this isn't the first time I've seen this

Tell me why it's very nostalgic therefore beloved, I can't go back again It's ok to call that place my hometown if it's like the place that I raise my voice & laugh at if it's that place...

One more time, the butterfly will take off again & fly away come & go, it will be protected by the breeze & will fly off somewhere

Stood under the moonlight. I was looking at the footprints of my bare feet
The light from the pale lightbulb calls out & the butterfly got burned & fell

Then I heard a haunting sad song
When I close my eyes, there's a melody of a lullabye
Did you kiss my cheek?
I understand that it was destiny that I was feeling let me know, it's very nostalgic why was it so sad? I can't return again

if it's a the place where I can raise my voice & laugh at if it's that place...

Round & round, it will fly away now, fluttering its wings the butterfly will fly away somewhere as if it were dancing One more time it will fly away, fluttering its wings high & low, it'll fly away somewhere
