

Crystal Kay, Rainy Blue Day

Oh baby baby
It's another rainy day,
Do the skies know every time my heart's filled with grey...
Lazy clouds cover the daystar, daystar,
Seems like a long day is starting again...

Oh baby baby,
Little blue bird in the case... is my only friend and comfort,
But even he cannot fly...
So much I feel,
So much that I wanna give, wanna give,
But the story may, may not be what I dreamed of...

Oo-oooh-oo
Baby baby, Baby baby, Baby baby,
All I can do is just to love you,
From so far away,
On this rainy, rainy day...

Oh you are the saviour, I know it in my heart,
But I can't show it, I can't show it, and words never follow...
How can I open to you...
Wanna reach out, reach out,
Can't find a way to let go, wish I were stronger...

(Baby, I want the courage to tell you, but I can't, I just can't...
Would I ever hold you... would I ever...)

Oo-oooh-oo
Baby baby, Baby baby, Baby baby,
All I can do is just to love you,
From so far away,
On this rainy, rainy day...

Oo-oooh-oo
Baby baby, Baby baby, Baby baby...
