==Translation==

&lt;/lyrics&gt;

Again, a star caught fire

The entire sky seems to be falling down

The summer of memories...

we thought the world was ours

Shooting star dust

We made a wish on the shooting star dust (wish on a star) which we'll keep in our hearts forever

But people become adults and a breakup that can't be avoided by anyone will come

When you begin to walk, don't look down

Believe in an unchanging heart

Falling tear drops

The tears that overflowed on our cheeks go on a journey (don't say goodbye)

it's a jewel that only we hold

Shooting star dust

I'll keep the wish that we made on the shooting star dust in my heart

Falling tear drops

The tears that overflowed on our cheeks (don't say goodbye)

shine brilliantly because it's a jewel just for us
