==Translation==

</lyrics>

I realized that love was painful by your side that night,
Because I know you better than anyone else.

Your casual kindness makes my heart ache

So, so closely I look at you
Why, why are we just friends?
How, how strongly I feel for you cannot be conveyed.
You don't understand. I'm so in love with you

"There's no vigor, don't you think?" You asked instantly.
"Insufficient sleep, huh?" My tears, hidden by yawning, translated.
Right now, I'm painfully lying to my most precious person

Because everyday, everyday my heart aches
Exceeding, exceeding so many sleepless nights
For the first time, for the first time, ever since we met by chance
Although it's been good, it can return
I'm so in love with you

"I love you," you surely said.
Already 2 degrees, perhaps those smiling faces can't return.
But making my friend laugh above this is impossible

Directly, directly, we like the truth
Within time, within time, we kept loving
I'd like to deliver our feelings to you.
It's whispered to the blue skies.
I'm so in love with you

So, so closely I look at you
Why, why are we just friends?
How, how strongly I feel for you cannot be conveyed.
You don't understand. I'm so in love with you
