

Crystal Lewis, Been Takin' Chances

copyright T. Meier

Been takin' chances with my life but that don't move me no more
Been takin' chances with my life but that don't move me no more
I got to tell you devil you ain't welcome round here no more

I got my heart in a sling, won't you mend it up with your love
I got my heart in a sling won't you mend it on up with your love
I got to get on my knees ask help from the Lord above

Been takin' chances baby
Been takin' chances baby
Been takin' chances baby
Way too many chances baby
Been takin' chances Lordy but that don't move me no more

Once I was blind but now I see again
Once I was blind but now I see again
I got to shout it from the mountain I've fallen in love again

Those funny little footsteps I don't do that dance no more
Those funny little footsteps I don't do that dance no more
I been jivin' so long I forgot what your love was for

Throw my cards down on the table
Put my dice back in the can
Can't take it off the shelf then put it back again
Been takin' chances Lordy but that don't move me no more
Been takin' chances Lordy but that don't move me no more

Been takin' chances with my life but that don't move me no more
Been takin' chances with my life but that don't move me no more
I got to tell you devil you ain't welcome round here no more

Those funny little footsteps I don't do that dance no more
Those funny little footsteps I don't do that dance no more
I been jivin' so long I forgot what your love was for