

Crystal Lewis, I Will Go

...And he said "Come, and follow me
I'm calling you I want you to be
A fisherman to fish for those
Who are drowning in a scowling sea
A sea of loneliness and pain
Confusion, hurt, worry, shame
I'm holding out my hand
And yet they don't hear me call their name

I want you to be the one
To tell them that the Kingdom's come
And give them all the truth and joy
You've been given by the Son

Will you go
Wherever I lead
Be light in the dark
And be salt in the street
Will you go
No matter the cost
Will you live for the lost
So they'll know of the cross
Will you go

I said Oh no, Lord not me
I'm not good enough to go you see
I mean what if they laugh or worse
Start throwing things and I get hurt
Besides that, what would I say
I think there's been a big mistake
Lord, please ask this of someone else
I can't go I'm too afraid

I want you to be the one
To tell them that the Kingdom's come
And give them all the truth and joy
You've been given by the Son

Will you go
Wherever I lead
Be light in the dark
And be salt in the street
Will you go
No matter the cost
Will you live for the lost
So they'll know of the cross
Will you go

He said yes, some will cover their ears
And they will not want to hear
You must stand and say it still
Be brave my child and do not fear
For it is my words you'll speak
And I promise I will keep
You safe and sound within my will
I'm your strength when you're weak

I want you to be the one
To tell then that the Kingdom's come
And give them all the truth and joy

I will go
Wherever You lead

Be light in the dark
No matter the cost
I will live for the lost

I will go
No matter the cost
I will live for the lost
I will go

I will go
Here I am
Send me
oh yeah
