

Cults, I Can Hardly Make You Mine

I can hardly make you mine
Telling you too often
I've been long time
And I wait

It feels so distantly sad
We can live it up high
So take me away
For debate

I don't think I can wait
For you all the way
Staring through the tears
Like a lonely girl

I can hardly make you mine
Telling you too often
But you never want it
You can take

So I can hardly be mine
I guess it's just a desperate cry
For the inner me I am
I wait

But I know you're not the one and the only
You don't know what is like to be lonely
But between your sinister laugh slowly
Butcheres your love to me
I was as much as hard I can be

I don't think I can wait
For you all the way
Staring through the tears
Like a lonely girl

I don't think I can wait
For you all the way
Staring through the tears
Like a lonely girl
