Culture Beat, Tell Me That You Wait

Tell me that you'll wait
Tell me that you'll wait for me
I gotta come back some day so tell me that you'll wait for me
I'm leaving on a jetplane
So tell me that you'll wait for me

Once again we're facing a tough situation No need to be bassing cause time we'll be wasting We've been through this type of thing before When I stepped to the ride and you stood crying in the door I really hate moments that turn out like these I'd sail the seven seas if I thought that I would ease The discomfort we feel when we must part There's not a man alive that wouldn't feel it in his heart Living out a suitcase always on the move I really appreciate the fact that you've always waited And been ready and willing Supporting what I'm doing and how I'm feeling Travelling all over may keep the bills paid But I couldn't stand myself if our love was to fade Over and over I dwell on this issue Cause when I'm away I can't help but miss you

Tell me that you'll wait Tell me that you'll wait for me I gotta come back some day so tell me that you'll wait for me

I'm leaving on a jetplane
So tell me that you'll wait for me
Tell me that you'll wait
Tell me that you'll wait for me
I gotta come back some day so tell me that you'll wait for me
I'm leaving on a jetplane
So tell me that you'll wait for me

Hold your tears you know I hate to see you cry I get so choked up each time we say goodbye My heart gets inflamed from allthe pain My head gets light and I don'tfeel the same I try to stay cool and be strong for you So you don't see all the hurt that I'm feeling too I know you always tell me to just let go But when the time arrives I find it hard to show

I know it's hard on you but one day things will change
When no longer in between us will there be much range
Though separated by miles our hearts remain close
I know I'm blessed each and eveytime you give me a dose of love
And show how much you care for your man
Cause in the past my relationships were just plain blend
Lacking in substance with not much meaning
But since the day I met you every day I'm singing
