Ooh mystery boy Ooh mystery boy

It's too sad to point the finger I told the boy to look at me But what you say it never lingers It's not what you say, but what you see

Boy look at me I couldn't look no better see

Ooh mystery boy Ooh mystery boy

It's too sad that love would sting you You told the girl that it would be A kind of love that's deep within you A boy's a boy, but did they say he'd be

For eternity? Or just a mystery

Ooh mystery boy Ooh mystery boy Ooh mystery boy Ooh mystery boy

Mystery boy ooh ooh Mystery Mystery boy

It's too sad to point the finger I told the boy to look at me It's too sad that love might sting you You told the girl that it would be Some kind of love that's deep within you Some dream that's hard to see
