Curtis Stigers, You're All That Matters

I make mistakes like any man
But I try to love you the best I can
I can't convince you, oh heaven knows i've tried,
I've tried to make you see, to make you believe

(chorus)
You're all that matters to me,
The ground that you walk, the air that you breathe,
Someday you'll discover, that I dont want no other, believe me
You're all that matters, baby, all that matters to me.

I know that you've been hurt before
But that wont happen anymore no,
Just give your heart to me and I'll guard it with my life
I dont know what I would do, baby, without you,

(chorus)

You're all that matters to me,
The ground that you walk, the air that you breathe,
Someday you'll discover, that I dont want no other, believe me
You're all that matters, baby, all that matters to me.

People looking for paradise baby I know that ive found mine and if you dont believe it take a look at the love in my eyes i'll be with you baby til the end of time i'll be ok baby as long as your mine.

(chorus)
You're all that matters to me,
The ground that you walk, the air that you breathe,
Someday you'll discover, that I dont want no other, believe me
You're all that matters, baby, all that matters to me.
