

Curve, Superblaster

I will reach out
To switch you on
I will reach out
Till you come

I will reach out
To turn you on
I will reach out
Until you come

We're the masters
Of the superblaster

Don't start playing games
You can't finish
Don't open doors
When you don't know what's waiting
Don't try to close your hands
They're smaller than the rain
Have you got anything left to say
Before I shoot myself

I will reach out
To find the truth
I will reach out
To steal your youth

We're the masters
Of the superblaster

Don't start playing games
That you can't finish
Don't open doors
When you don't know what's waiting
Don't try to close your hands
They're smaller than the rain
Have you got anything left to say
Anything left to say

I will reach out
To switch you on
I will reach out
To steal your youth
And that's the god's honest truth

We're the masters
Of the superblaster
