

Curved Air, Young Mother

Why must I?
Nothin' means anythin' now
I can't believe in somethin' unreal
Don't interfere with my mind
Try to be kind

It's down to how much
Faith in the end
You're meant to choose
find a true friend

Don't plead with me,
I'm not bound to plead with you
I can't insist that you understand
I tried so hard you don't know
Try to be kind

Don't care how much
Faith in the end
You're meant to choose
find a true friend

Why must I?
Nothin' means anythin' now
I can't believe in somethin' unreal
Don't interfere with my mind
Try to be kind

It's down to how much
Faith in the end
You're meant to choose
find a true friend

Don't plead with me,
I'm not bound to plead with you
I can't insist that you understand
I tried so hard you don't know
No, no, you don't know
