Custom, Streets

i oh i

sometimes it's time to think about it sometimes it's time to find time it's not like you really lost it like a lucky penny or your mind a ghost of you is on her lips a shattered glimpse of when you'd play leaving only silence on another lonely day but this is not the time it's not the time to feel you have your instuctions now you better close the deal step up i said step up do you hear me

when i'm talking to you
i said step up you stupid little fool too long in the game to not know the rules
step up step up step up don't even think about
thinking about what you're going to do step up step up no way some dimple's
going to take you back to school i oh why i oh why sometimes it's time to think about it sometimes it's time to find time he may be her lucky penny that she'll never get to shine the streets between them are melting as he puts together the bits of steel he can still smell the flowers she kissed in a way that he could feel but they sent you the money her address and the day and the usual intructions the blow the mark away step up i said step up do you hear me when i'm talking to you i said, step up you stupid little fool too long in the game to not know the rules step up step up step up don't even think about thinking about what you're going to do step up, step up no way some dimple's going to take you back to school i oh i i oh why why oh why why oh why yes this is your body yes this is your face this is your truth

your hatred your disgrace she may be a mirror in jest of your mistakes or a monster too who could understand your place she may be a mirror she may be a mirror in jest of your mistakes she may be a monster she may be a monster she may be a monster who could understand your place step up i said step up do you hear me

too long in the game to not know the rules
step up no way some dimple's going to take you back to school
