Cydonia, One Last Crime

Mistake! I'm running into my self and I'm ready to uncover all the secrets of my identity Disguised in an imperfect human convinced to be strong and now I walk in the fire with the evil in my soul
As I'm guilty to a sin...

You can't stop, you can't stop the pain in me
I refuse the tools and just want to break the rules
... trying to explain... in a damn blind world this is all a mistake!

I lose my fantasy in my mind, my hand's taking a gun...
front the mirror One Last Crime, and my life is fading
A shadow is coming in my sun, and while I look my eyes...
crash the mirror I killed my curse, and my life is fading

Image! Virtual reality!
I can't live linked to a wire as a puppet smiling front the show
I can't play to be happy for the answers that they've offered to me
and now I walk in the fire with the evil in my soul
As I'm guilty for my sin...

You can't stop, you can't stop the pain in me
I refuse the tools and just want to break the rules
... trying to explain... in a damn blind world this is all a mistake!

I lose my fantasy in my mind, my hand's taking a gun...
front the mirror One Last Crime, and my life is fading
A shadow is coming in my sun, and while I look my eyes...
crash the mirror I killed my curse, and my life is fading

Cold inside, lost in my cell I'm unveiling my mask Around me and in my mind I can feel you... oh... my my
... searching for the warmth of her arms and I need her poetries of dreams
... with no a reason to smile

I lose my fantasy in my mind, my hand's taking a gun...
front the mirror One Last Crime, and my life is fading
A shadow is coming in my sun, and while I look my eyes...
crash the mirror I killed my curse, and my life is fading

and my life is fading
