

D'Sound, Boyfriend

If you met my boyfriend you would wish that you were me
'cause everything about him tells you bout his honesty.

There's no more being weary and even when I cry i do it 'cause I'm happy

And I'm in bliss cause I've just been kissed

We can go on travels resting in a sole embrace.
Drugs could never beat this:
trippin' high and yet so safe.

He blinds me when he's smiling
He leaves me with no words
He shelters me from evil

And I'm in bliss cause I've just been kissed by my boyfriend

And I'm in bliss cause I've just been kissed

And I'm in bliss cause I've just been kissed
I'm receiving all of the love I've missed
And i know i don't need no one else but my boyfriend
But my boyfriend

There's a cutie standing over here
and there's a handsome walking over there
But i'm suplied every night
I got my boyfriend and i just don't care

There's a cutie standing over here
and there's a handsome walking over there
But i'm suplied every night
Mmmm... I got my boyfriend
