

Da Buzz, Fantasy

I want to live my life with you.

I wanna spread my wings and fly away, in my fantasy.

You fill my soul with happiness.

You fill my heart with lovely words.

You gave me hope, i just can't believe that you played the games you always play.

Why do you play this game with me?

It's over now but i wanted you to stay.

I want to live my life with you.

I wanna spread my wings and fly away, in my fantasy...

When i opened up my eyes today the sun was shining on my face.

I realized that you are gone, i felt so empty.

Inside of me you'll always be.

But now i feel, i feel so free.

Stronger than before, it will never be the same.

I want to live my life with you.

I wanna spread my wings and fly away, in my fantasy...
