Da T.R.U.T.H., This Is For You

Either this life is meaningless or its meaning is

Eclipsed by a series of events that satisfy for the moment

But once

your moment is passed your moment's the past

Then poof dude you can't revive it or hold it

You're born you suffer

you die when you're older

But there's a loophole, I wouldn't lie to my soldiers

Nor would I lie to my sisters, God is my witness

Jesus Christ is the only escape from out of your prison

Let's Go

Verse 1

He's clean we're unclean, we're seen He's unseen you don't want him to flee the scene you need him to intervene in your life therefore, come cling to the King and cling to those things that He loves bring flames to the things that

He hates

be sure not to worship things that He shapes for the things that He makes or the things that He'll shake, yes

Things that He makes are the things He creates

If you exchange Him for those things you're suppressing the truth which simply means that you know He exists and in Him all things consist and that He's powerful but you ignore Him vou don't want to be accountable and responsible for doing that which is considered sin which are simply those things that are inconstistent with Him

His antithesis that makes you consider Him not consider the plot consider your lot and ask yourself if you're a citizen in the city of God

Let's Go

Hook:

Yes this is for you

Yes this is for you

Yes this is, yes this is for you

Verse 2

He's clean, we're unclean, we're seen He's unseen you don't want Him to flee the scene cause homey this ain't a dream it's real life ain't what it seems but seems to appeal to our appetite so just for a single meal we sell our birthright

now that's senseless like trading in your motocycle for a dirt bike

I mean the earth's alright but turn on the search light you'll find it's not a new pair of Jordan's it's some hurt Nikes from birth right to the grave we liken our days to that of the nature of a night and a day you know it's here then it's gone this earth is temporary I

that you adhere to what you hear in this song, yes draw near to His throne otherwise your God's the creator's creation and it's clear that that's wrong you can be sincere but sincerely wrong I'm just trying to remind you, you need to be fearing the Lord

let's go

Verse 3

He's clean, we're unclean, we're seen He's unseen

yup sister you got it, yes it's the same thing it's redundant

(same ole song)

but a momentous one life's full of moments but once your moment under the sun is over your moment is done yo

you don't control your moment, your moment's your owner (think about that) trust me if you controlled your moment then you would hold on to the moment that's golden but you can't 'cause your moment is fleeting and God designed it that way to get you to grope Him and seek Him why you think the starry hosts and the ocean's intriguing and you were created a socio emotional being God did this to provoke you to think in terms of whether or not you're in fellowship with the

Holiest being

Jesus Christ the Holiest meaning set apart waiting for you and your homies to agree with Him
