In the name of love and liberty

Call it humanity on a one way trip to vanity

No we couldn't break it up or call it no fatality no fantasy

I guarantee you quality and quantity

The parking lot the triple fun

Don't you know we couldn't miss none of this

Our loving ain't cold so don't call it trash

Drop the pressure got the mountain feet

The holy plot

Can't take the passion into crashing the need

I need your fleesh

Cause I need your flesh
