

Dala, Perfect Photo

Prom queen crime scene, the perfect photo
One more has-been to make the dream

Rumour has it that he's been crying
And walking backwards away from home

There'll be hell to pay
Just put it on my tab

I wanna know who decided
That life's one sided
Is it wrong to fight it
When I know there'll be hell to pay

Apple orchard, the perfect moment
But we're still making the same mistake

There'll be hell to pay
Just put it on my tab

I wanna know who decided
That life's one sided
Is it wrong to fight it
When I know there'll be hell to pay

And if I stand up will you see me from above
Cause I'm here looking up

I wanna know who decided
That life's one sided
Is it wrong to fight it
When I know there'll be hell to pay
