

Dalbello, My Mind's Made Up

Curtain calls
Followed by loud applause
And how patiently she waits
For the final encore

He walks down the stairs
Such a sad affair
Dancin' to his favorite tune
Like a marionette
She'll awaken on cue

CHORUS

And then she says, "My Mind's Made Up"
Now she says, "My Mind's Made Up"
"every time My Mind's Made Up"
He calls and she comes running back
He calls and she comes running back
Why do you always change your line girl?

Through the door
What are you waiting for?
Make up your mind girl and move
For the final encore

She sits all alone
By the telephone
And waits until he accommodates
Like a marionette
She'll awaken on cue

CHORUS

And then she says, "My Mind's Made Up"
Now she says, "My Mind's Made Up"
"every time My Mind's Made Up"
He calls and she comes running back
He calls and she comes running back
Why do you always change your line girl?

BRIDGE

C'mon, c'mon
Now's the time to do it while your mind is runnin' through it
C'mon, c'mon
Now's the time to do it while your mind is runnin' through
