

Damhnait Doyle, Is It Right To Say Goodbye

You don't laugh at my jokes like you used to
Don't stand up when I walk in the room
And your charming excuses no longer seduce
And I'm scared to tell you the truth

Well we played to the camera so perfectly
All our friends they made such a fuss
Well I swear we were making a b movie scene
For everyone else but us

But is it right to say goodbye
Somebody please make up my mind

Do you remember when we were new lovers
The world's sadness was lost on us
Now I couldn't make you smile even if I tried
And these days I don't try that hard

But is it right to say goodbye
Somebody please make up my mind

Coulda said the word and saved the day
Knowing tomorrow's gonna be better
Ain't easier today
(It ain't easier)
You say honey it's all good
Well I've been looking I can't find
A reason to stay

But is it right to say goodbye
Will somebody please make up my mind

Coulda said the word and saved the day
Knowing tomorrow's gonna be better
Ain't easier today
You say honey it's all good
Well I've been looking I can't find
A reason to stay

Coulda said the word and saved the day
Knowing tomorrow is gonna be better
Ain't easier today
You say honey it's all good
Well I've been looking I can't find
A reason to stay

Coulda said the word and saved the day
Knowing tomorrow's gonna be better
Ain't easier today
You say honey it's all good
Well I've been looking I can't find
A reason to stay

Coulda said the word and saved the day
Knowing tomorrow's gonna be better
Ain't easier today
You say honey it's all good
Well I've been looking I can't find
A reason to stay

Somebody please help me
To just pick up and say goodbye
