

Damien Rice, Silent Night

Silent night,
Broken night.
All is fallen,
When you take your life
I found some hate for you,
just for show.
You found some love for me,
thinking I'd go.
Don't keep me from cryin to sleep
Sleep in heavinly peace.

Silent night,
Moonlit night.
Nothing's changed.
Nothing is right.
I should be stronger then,
weeping alone.
You should be weaker then,
sending me home.
I can't stop you fighting to sleep.
Sleep in heavinly peace.
